

Agnes Hanson

Agnes Hanson, 91, Scottsdale, Ariz., formerly of Grand Forks, died Saturday, April 29, 1995, in Scottsdale.

Agnes Theodora Anderson was born April 25, 1904, in Greenbush, Minn., the daughter of Andrew and Thone (Gjerland) Anderson. She attended high school in Crookston, married Olaf Hanson July 22, 1928, in Greenbush, and they lived in several North and South Dakota towns before they settled in Pembina, N.D., in 1935. Olaf Hanson died in 1970. She lived in Grand Forks and Longmont, Calif., before moving to Scottsdale.

She is survived by son, Harold, Grinnell, Iowa; daughters, Sonia Thompson, Mesa, Ariz., Carol Schwinkendorf, Scottsdale, and Helen Helgeland, Longmont; 13 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; sister, Valborg Patitucci, Portland, Ore.; and brothers, Barney Anderson, Apache Junction, Ariz., and Joseph Anderson, Greenbush.

■ Services: 10:30 a.m. Thursday in Amundson Funeral Home, Grand Forks.

■ Visitation: One hour before services in the funeral home.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.