

Benjamin Franklin Young

Benjamin Franklin Young, 70, rural East Grand Forks, died Friday, April 17, 1992, in United Hospital.

Benjamin F. Young was born March 10, 1922, the son of Herbert and Alta Young, in Montrose, Minn. The family moved to Grand Forks in 1936. He graduated from Grand Forks Central High School. He married Vera R. Gunst in November 1944 in Grand Forks. He worked for Goodman Farm Electric Co. and later was a partner in The Young Brothers Machine Shop. From 1950 to 1987, he worked as a machinist in the Minnkota Power Co.

Benjamin Young

Survivors are his wife; daughter, Susan (Mrs. Kim) Smith Filter, East Grand Forks; two grandchildren; brothers, Richard and Roland, both of Grand Forks; sister, Vera Mae (Mrs. Lester) Soberg, King City, Ore.; and several nieces and nephews.

■ Services: 2 p.m. Tuesday in Hope Evangelical Covenant Church, East Grand Forks. Memorials are requested to Evangelical Covenant Missions.

■ Visitation: 5 to 8 p.m. Monday, with a 7:30 p.m. prayer service, in Amundson Funeral Home, Grand Forks.