

Curtis Hagert

EMERADO, N.D. — Curtis Hagert, 81, Emerado, died Monday, Dec. 31, 2001, in Northwood Deaconess Health Center, where he had lived since Oct. 26, 2001.

Hagert

Curtis L. Hagert was born Jan. 26, 1920, the son of Gust and Bertha (Sand) Hagert in Emerado, where he grew up and graduated from high school, in 1937. He attended Mayville (N.D.) State College and North Dakota State University, Fargo. He married Charlotte Dale on Nov. 1, 1941, in Crookston. They lived and farmed in Pleasant View Township, near Emerado, from 1937 until retiring in 1982.

He is survived by his wife; daughters, Sandra (Robert) Walters, Woodbury, Minn., and Joanne (Myron) Larson, Wyoming, Mich.; sons, Robert (Laura), Ridgeway, Colo., and Curtis Jr. (Roberta) and David (Karen) Hagert, both of Emerado; 17 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and sisters, Dorothy Crosby, Hattiesburg, Miss., and Mildred Proctor, Temple Hills, Md.

He was preceded in death by a granddaughter, a sister, Blanche Anderson; and brothers, Edward, Franklin and Gordon.

■ Services: 2 p.m. Friday, Presbyterian Church, Emerado.

■ Visitation: 4 to 8 p.m. Thursday, with an 8 p.m. prayer service, Amundson Funeral Home, Grand Forks.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.