

Delores R.
Linfoot

Delores R. Linfoot, 72, Grand Forks, North Dakota, died Wednesday, March 29, 2000 in Villa St. Vincent Nursing Home, Crookston, Minnesota.

Delores Rose Olson, the daughter of Joseph and Laura (Huus) Olson was born April 21, 1927 at Roseglen, North Dakota. She grew up and attended school in Grand Forks, and later graduated from Proviso High School in Chicago, Illinois.

She was a loving wife to C.L. "Bud" Linfoot whom she married on October 15, 1949 in Grand Forks. She will be remembered as a most devoted and caring mother to Laurie (Duane) Brown, Auburn, California; Janice (Bradley) Pratt, Mandan, North Dakota; Patti (Douglas) Peterson, East Grand Forks, Minnesota; Merrie Linfoot, Las Vegas, Nevada. Her grandchildren, Kristi (James) Turano, Citrus Heights, California; Shawn (Angie) Widman, Grand Forks; Jennifer (Travis) Manzke, Buxton; Heidi and Stacey Pratt, Delores is survived by her husband and two sisters: Glendora (Henry) Zadrozny, Winchester, Illinois and Opal Murphy, St. Paul, Minnesota and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Although being among family was her first passion, over the years Delores enjoyed golfing, bowling and playing bridge with many dear friends. She was active in the Shrine Women's Auxiliary for many years as well. She especially liked to be at Grace Lake in the summer among all her children and their families.

She is preceded in death by her parents, a sister, Geraldine Atkins, and a brother, Jerome Olson.

Services will be held at 10:00 am Saturday in Mendenhall Presbyterian Church, East Grand Forks, Minnesota. Visitation was 4 to 7pm Friday in Amundson Funeral Home, Grand Forks, and for one hour prior to the service in church.

The family suggests that memorials be designated to the Kem Shrine Red Fez Fund, or the North Dakota Alzheimer's Association.
