

Florence Johnson

Florence Johnson, 95, Good Samaritan Nursing Center, East Grand Forks, formerly of 110 Cherry St., died Friday, June 30, 1995, in the nursing center.

Florence Minerva Knutson was born Jan. 9, 1900, in Iola, Wis., the daughter of Christ and Karen (Anderson) Knutson. She attended school in Drayton, N.D., and moved in 1912 to Grand Forks, where she continued her education. She married Carl Wallin Dec. 1, 1935, in Grand Forks. Carl Wallin died July 10, 1955. She married Axel Johnson July 17, 1959, in Grand Forks. Axel Johnson died Nov. 21, 1963. She also lived in Detroit and in Chicago, where she worked for the Quaker Oats Co.

She is survived by son, Donald Wallin, Larimore, N.D.; two grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and sister, Edna Swanson, Grand Forks.

She was preceded in death by four brothers and six sisters.

■ Services: 2 p.m. Monday in Augustana Lutheran Church, Grand Forks.

■ Visitation: Two hours before services in the church.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks (Amundson, Grand Forks).