

Flora Ohlsen

Flora L. Ohlsen, 83, 2850 28th Ave. South #319, Grand Forks, died Tuesday, Aug. 13, 2002 at home

Ohlsen

Flora Luciene Dailly was born to Tobias and Yvonne (Robert) Dailly on Sept. 7, 1918 at Thorn, N.D. She grew up in the Dunseith, N.D., area and graduated from Dunseith High School in 1937. She later attended Union Commercial College in Grand Forks and graduated from Bottineau (N.D.) School of Forestry with a degree in business. She married Clarence Ohlsen on July 3, 1941, in Dunseith. They lived in Towner and Jamestown, N.D., before moving to Grand Forks in 1964. Clarence Ohlsen died July 30, 1968. She was a long-time employee of Griffith's Department Store in Grand Forks, and she was an avid bridge player.

She is survived by daughters, Myra (David) Liberato, Fargo, Mary (Tom) Polovitz, Grand Forks; grandchildren, Jamie, Kathryn, T. J., and Kelly; brother, Ernest (Lucille) Dailly, Bremerton, Wash.; sister, Beatrice Johnson, Bottineau; and sister-in-law, Carmen David, Sioux Falls, S.D.

She was preceded in death by sisters, Irene and Lena Memorial Services will be at 5 p.m. Friday, Aug. 16, 2002, in Amundson Funeral Home, Grand Forks. Visitation will be for an hour prior to the service. Interment will be in Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks, at a later date.

The family prefers memorials to the American Heart Association or the Grand Forks Mission.