

Gudrun Green

Gudrun Green, 91, 210 N. Sixth St., died Wednesday, Dec. 8, 1993, in Valley Memorial Homes Eldercare Center.

Gudrun A.M. Isachsen was born Nov. 4, 1902, in Fort Dodge, Iowa, the daughter of Karl and Ingeborg Isachsen.

The family moved in 1906 to Fordville, N.D., where her father operated a drugstore until he died in 1923. She moved with her mother in 1925 to Grand Forks, where she graduated from UND Model High School, attended

Gudrun Green

Union Commercial College and was a legal secretary with the Great Northern Railway Claim Department, retiring in 1962. She married Clarence L. Green March 24, 1934, in Minneapolis. He died July 21, 1972. She was a 50-year member of the Order of Eastern Star, the Sons of Norway Lodge and the Elks Auxiliary.

She is survived by a godson, John Sve, Fargo, and several cousins in Norway.

■ Services: 11 a.m. Tuesday in United Lutheran Church Chapel.

■ Visitation: 4 to 6 p.m. Monday, with a 5:45 p.m. Eastern Star service, in Amundson Funeral Home.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery.