

Georgia Grace (Kosobud) Paukert

Georgia Grace (Kosobud) Paukert, 83, Grand Forks, North Dakota died peacefully Tuesday, March 20, 2007 at her residence.

Georgia was born on September 28, 1923 in Lankin, North Dakota, the third of four children born to Emil and Mary (Bina) Kosobud.

She was raised and educated in the Lankin area.

Georgia married Edward Paukert on October 16, 1942 in Grafton, North Dakota. After WWII, they moved to Grand Forks to work and raise a family.

Georgia was employed for 26 years in the bakery at the north end Hugo's grocery store. She was known for her ever present smile and cheerful service to her customers. Georgia loved to garden, cook and bake. Her greatest pride and interest was caring for her family. She especially took pleasure in following the many activities of her children and grandchildren throughout the years. Georgia's loving, caring and generous spirit touched the lives of many.

Edward Paukert died July 18, 2005.

Survivors include, daughters: Carolyn Kay (Dale F.) Keller, Wilmington, North Carolina, Mary E. Paukert, Grand Forks, North Dakota; sons, Terry (Judith) Paukert, Grand Forks, North Dakota and David (Amy Jo) Paukert, Michigan, North Dakota; grandchildren, Bryan Hart, Salt Lake City, Utah, Amy Hart, Boise, Idaho, Carrie Paukert, Minneapolis, Minnesota, Charlie Paukert, Grand Forks, North Dakota, Angela Hart and her daughter Alexis May of Wheat Ridge, Colorado; sister, Florence Jorstad, Fayetteville, Arkansas.

She was preceded in death by her parents and by a sister, Mary and brother, George.

Memorial Service will be 11:00 a.m. Saturday, March 24, 2007 in Calvary Lutheran Church of Grand Forks.

Family will greet friends one hour prior to the service in the church.

Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery in the spring of 2007.

Arrangements are with Amundson Funeral Home of Grand Forks. www.amundson-funeralhome.com