

Harland Larson

MAYVILLE, N.D. — Harland K. Larson, 72, Mayville, formerly of Grand Forks, died Wednesday, April 26, 2000, at home.

Harland K. Larson was born March 19, 1929, the son of Albert and Sarah (Thompson) Larson, in Blanchard, N.D. He graduated from school in Portland, N.D. He graduated from Mayville State Teachers College and earned his master's degree from UND. He worked for 18 years as a teacher, coach, high school principal and superintendent of schools. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps. He worked for Aetna Life Insurance Co. He married Ruth Macken on May 12, 1956, in Glasston, N.D. She died May 26, 1991.

He is survived by sons, Todd, Minneapolis, and Robin (Sandra), Mayville; three grandchildren; two sisters; and a brother.

He was preceded in death by four brothers; and two sisters.

■ Services: 10:30 a.m. Monday, Amundson Funeral Home, Grand Forks.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks. Memorials are suggested to Hospice of the Red River Valley or the Union Hospital Foundation, Mayville.