

Irene Deitz

ARTHUR, N.D. — Irene Deitz, 85, Arthur, and formerly of Fargo, died Thursday, Nov. 10, 1994, in Good Samaritan Home, Arthur, where she had lived since 1991.

Irene G. Laken was born April 9, 1909, in Overly, N.D., the daughter of Paul and Lena (Mauseth) Laken, and attended schools in North Dakota and Minnesota. She married Thorvald Torkelson Dec. 29, 1925, in Devils Lake, and they lived near Edmore, N.D. She married Lloyd Deitz Aug. 29, 1935, in Crookston, and they moved to Nekoma, N.D. Lloyd Deitz died in 1972. She lived in Langdon until 1977, when she moved to Fargo.

She is survived by daughters, Lillian (Mrs. William) Thoraldson, Fargo, Delores Bolin, Monticello, Ill., and Bonnie (Mrs. Pat) Hosman, Apache Junction, Ariz.; 14 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by grandchildren, Carmen Lou Hosman and Lisa Bolin; brothers, Palmer and Raymond; and a sister, Myrtle Klemisch.

■ Services: 2 p.m. Monday in Hanson-Runsvold Chapel, Fargo.

■ Visitation: 2 to 4 p.m. today and 1 to 2 p.m. Monday in the chapel.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.