

James Adair

James Adair, 66, 1614 Sixth Ave. N., died Friday, Oct. 14, 1994, at home.

James Edward Adair was born May 21, 1928, in Grand Forks, the son of James M. and Violet (Lafave) Adair. He grew up and attended schools in Minnesota, worked for Dakota Plate Glass for 26 years and OK Glass for eight years. He married Mathilda Kaiser Nov. 10, 1947, in East Grand Forks.

James Adair

She survives with daughters, Dale Pfau, Grand Forks, and Susan Attaway, Mineola, Texas; three grandchildren; his father, East Grand Forks; brother, Ellis, Grand Forks; and sister, Colleen Belt, Coon Rapids, Minn.

■ Services: 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in Norman Funeral Home, Columbia Road.

■ Visitation: 4 to 7 p.m. Monday in the chapel.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery.

Harry Rice

Harry F. Rice, 76, 2110 Belmont Road, died of lung cancer at home Friday, Oct. 14, 1994.

His civic involvement included serving as president of Community Broadcasting Co., 30 years on the board of directors of American Federal Savings Bank, president of the Grand Forks School Board and several terms on the City Council. He was president of the YMCA and chairman of the board of United Hospital from 1971 to 1978. He received the Henry Havig Community Community Leadership Award in 1979 from the Chamber of Commerce. He was active in service organizations, including Rotary, Gridiron and the Kem Temple.

Harry Rice

Harry Fraser Rice was born March 10, 1918, in Grand Forks, the son of Harry P. and Nellie (Fraser) Rice. He graduated in 1935 from Central High School and from UND in 1939. He served with the Marine Corps during World War II and worked at Adolph Lund Co., East Grand Forks, before he established his own accounting firm and became a certified public accountant.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Marian (Lund) Rice, Grand Forks; sons, Peter, Newport, R.I., Jon, Bismarck, Craig, Santa Ynez, Calif., and Scott, Grand Forks; 11 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and sister, Helen Sorlie, Bismarck.

■ Services: Private services are planned. Instead of flowers, the family suggests memorials to United Hospice, United Health Foundation or First Presbyterian Church (Amundson).