

Jean Hovland

MENTOR, Minn. — Jean M. Hovland, 73, formerly of Mentor, died April 2, 1993, in Humana Sunrise Hospital, Las Vegas.

Jean Hovland was born May 31, 1919, near Mentor, the daughter of John and Signe Hovland. She graduated from Grand Forks Central High School, attended UND and graduated from Lutheran Bible School of Minneapolis. She worked at Peggy Lee's drive-in in Grafton for 10 years before moving to California in 1947. She was a medical technician in Los Angeles for nearly 20 years before moving to Las Vegas.

Jean Hovland

Survivors are sisters, Helen (Mrs. Wesley) Jackson, Tampa, Fla.; Lou (Mrs. Jack) Russell, Boulder City, Nev.; Peggy (Mrs. Harold) Markholt, Las Vegas, and Eileen (Mrs. Allen) Nelson, Baudette, Minn.; and brothers, Robert "Bob," Yuma, Ariz., and John Jr. "Jack," Burlingame, Calif.

She was preceded in death by brothers, Ted and Harvey.

■ Services: Were in Las Vegas.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.