

Lillian Koppang

Lillian B. Koppang, 85, Grand Forks, died Sunday, April 21, 2002, in Altru Hospital.

Koppang

Lillian Bergquam was born Oct. 18, 1916, the daughter of Arthur and Rachel (Johnson) Bergquam, in Grafton, N.D., where she graduated from high school in 1934. She attended Union Commercial College, Grand Forks, and was employed by Valley Motor Co. She married Harry Koppang on April 7, 1939. He died March 14, 1952. She was employed by Dr. Harold Muus at Deaconess Hospital and United Hospital, Grand Forks, and at Electric Construction.

She is survived by daughters, Harriet (Albert) Roisum, Overland Park, Kan., and Mary Glick, Fargo; 13 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; sisters, Violet (Arthur) Lang, Redding, Calif., and Carol VanRosky, Fargo; and a brother, Arthur Jr. "Bud" (Beverly), Post Falls, Idaho.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Judy Romo; sisters, Agnes (James) Brintnell, Ruth (Robert) Woolley, and Harriet (Richard) McCay; and a brother, Richard (Joan).

■ Services: 2 p.m. Friday, Norman Funeral Home, Columbia Road.

■ Visitation: One hour before services in the funeral home.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.