

Nathan R. Hageman

Nathan R. Hageman, 32, of Grand Forks, passed away on Sunday, April 15, 2007, in Buffalo, MN.

Nathan Rory Hageman was born on November 8, 1974, to Rory Hageman and Donna (Arnold) Trosen. Nathan grew up in Harvey and Grand Forks and graduated from Anamoose High School. He attended UND, Northland Tech, and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Information Systems from UMC Crookston.

Nathan worked for Ecolab, Agseo, and most recently the Ralph Englestad Arena.

Nathan was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, golf, camping with his boys, and most of all BBQ's with family.

Nathan is survived by his father Rory Hageman of Grand Forks, mother Donna (Paul) Trosen of Grand Forks, sons, Chase & Dawson Hageman, & Tyler Braunhausen; longtime girlfriend, Trish Chyle of Grand Forks, brothers, Matthew (Gail) Hageman of Grand Forks, Daniel (Leah) Trosen of Carrington, ND; Nick (Amber) Hageman of Rochester, MN; Bryan (Amber) Trosen of Grand Forks; nieces, Nikki, Madi, and Autumn; numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins; friend, Chris (Deirdra) Yarbrough of Buffalo, MN; and many special dear friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Alvin and Dolly Arnold & Gene and Joan Hageman.

Funeral Services: 11:00 a.m., Thursday, April 19, 2007, at Sharon Lutheran Church 1720 S. 20th St. in Grand Forks

Visitation: 10:00 a.m., Thursday, April 19, 2007, at Sharon Lutheran Church

Interment: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks, ND

Amundson Funeral Home of Grand Forks, ND.

www.amundsonfuneral-home.com