

Pauline Dalbey Buckham

ARDOCH, N.D.— Pauline Dalbey Buckham, 84, formerly of Ardoch and Grand Forks, died Tuesday, May 13, 1995, in Minneapolis.

Pauline Dalbey was born Oct. 10, 1910, in Ardoch, N.D., the daughter of Rola and Marjorie (Schwisher) Dalbey. She married William Buckham March 20, 1945, in Grand Forks. She worked at Bray's Ready to Wear in Grand Forks and moved in 1950 to Minneapolis, where she worked for the Pillsbury Co. until she retired in 1975. William Buckham died May 14, 1958. She belonged to Grace Methodist Church in Minneapolis, where she was treasurer for many years and was a delegate to the Minnesota annual conference.

She is survived by a brother, Vern, Fargo; sisters, Gladys Steiner, Lamont, Ill., Vivian Stilwell, Germantown, Md., Eleanore Anderson, Rockville, Md., Donna Ruggles, Las Cruces, N.M., Louise Triskle, Grand Forks; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Marge Mattox.

■ Services: Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday in Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.