

Patricia Faye (Foster) Griffin

Patricia Faye (Foster) Griffin of Littleton, Colorado passed away at a Bangor, Maine hospital on January 3, 2003 from complications following a stroke. Patricia was born on May 15, 1941 in Grand Forks, North Dakota to Archie and Dagny (Nielsen) Foster.

Griffin

Patricia grew up in Grand Forks and lived in many cities across North Dakota. She later lived in Iowa and Nebraska before moving to Littleton, Colorado in 1985. She was married to Wally Griffin of Emerado, North Dakota from 1960 to 1990.

Patricia was a devoted homemaker, her family being her number one priority. She will be missed by her family and her many friends around the country. She is survived by her mother, Dagny Foster; sister Sharon, and her husband, Robert Martin; brother Joe Foster, and his wife, Patti, all of Hemet, California; her sons, Craig Griffin of Chandler, Arizona, and Tim Griffin, his wife, Janice, their children, Justin and Hannah, of Bangor, Maine; and her daughter, Sandra, and her husband, Chris Larsen, of Boise, Idaho. She will especially be missed by her close friends Joyce Fahlstedt and Doug and Connie Jensen of Denver, Colorado, Karen and Jerry Griffin of Grand Forks, North Dakota, and Bruce and Carol Larsen of Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

A private service will be held on January 7, 2003 in Bangor, Maine and a memorial is being planned for mid-February in Denver, Colorado. Patricia's family requests that in lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, or a charity of your choice.
