

Paul Kluzak

Paul Kluzak, 80, Grand Forks, died Thursday, Nov. 22, 2001, in the Good Samaritan Nursing Home in Warren, Minn.

Paul Kluzak was born on May 12, 1921, the son of William and Mathilda (Kopecky) Kluzak, near Sherack, Minn. He attended rural school and then moved to Grand Forks in 1945. He married Mona Welsh on July 6, 1951 in Crookston. He worked at Popplers Music as a band instrument repairman and was an accordion player for local bands. They spent winters in McAllen, Texas, and later in Arizona.

He is survived by his wife; a son, John, of Mandan, N.D., two grandchildren; sisters, Emily (Eldo) Jobe, Crookston, and Agnes Dvorak, Warren; and brothers, John, Whittier, Calif., and Walter (Ardis), Zion, Ill.

He was preceded in death by a daughter-in-law, Lori; a sister, Sylvia Filipi; and brothers, Edward and William.

■ Services: 10 a.m. Monday, in Stennes Funeral Home Chapel, East Grand Forks.

■ Visitation: One hour before services at the chapel.

■ Burial: Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.