

William McLean

LARIMORE, N.D. — William McLean, 72, Larimore, died Monday, May 6, 1991, in Northwood (N.D.) Hospital.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in St. Stephens Catholic Church, Larimore. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Wednesday in Brown Funeral Home, Larimore. Burial will be at Memorial Park Cemetery, Grand Forks.

William McLean was born Dec. 28, 1918, the son of John and Daphne McLean, in Johnstown, N.D., where he grew up. He farmed near Johnstown and worked for Forester Gravel, rural Johnstown, for many years. He worked for Prosen Implement, Larimore, until he retired.

Survivors are his wife, Leona; stepdaughter, Mary Wixo, Larimore; stepsons, Ben Sullivan, Minnetonka, Minn., and Jim and Pat Sullivan, both of Larimore; and a nephew and niece.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Lenora, and brother, Ray.