

Yvonne A. Johnson

Yvonne Johnson, age 84, Moorhead, MN, formerly of Crookston, MN, died Thursday, Sept. 28, 2006, at Eventide Lutheran Home, Moorhead.

Yvonne Arlene Behl, the daughter of George and Alma Behl, was born July 24, 1922, in Grand Forks, ND, where she grew up and received her education.

Yvonne married Kenneth R. Johnson, June 14, 1944, in Grand Forks. They lived in Minneapolis, MN, and in Bagley, MN, and Crookston, where they owned and operated photography studios.

In 1970, Yvonne moved to Los Angeles, CA, where she worked as a photographer and was an accomplished colorist for oil portraits. She worked for Nordstrom Department Stores for 17 years and retired in 1998. Yvonne truly loved her work.

After retirement, Yvonne moved to Canby, Oregon, where she was active in her church, Bethany Lutheran Church. She later moved to Moorhead, where she was a resident of Eventide Lutheran Home for more than four years. The family is thankful to Eventide for their loving care.

Yvonne is survived by three daughters, Pamela (Lawrence) Berwick, Canby, Debra (David) Brager, Moorhead, and Patricia (Nick) Albano, Molalla, OR; three sisters, Eleanor (Louis) Nelson, Minnetonka, MN, Muriel (Don) Folsom, Grafton, ND, and Elaine (Bob) Hale, Baltimore, MD; three brothers, Elwood (Eileen) Behl, Ottertail, MN, John (Shirley) Behl, Fergus Falls, MN, and David (Betty) Behl, Detroit Lakes, MN; 6 grandchildren; and 5 great-grandchildren.
